

WHAT TO DO IN SAVANNAH

ACTIVITIES:

- Isle of Hope Art and Music Festival
- Savannah for Morons: Comedy Trolly Tour (hilarious and byob)
- Forsyth Farmers Market (Saturdays from 9-1pm)
- Shopping on Broughton St.
- walk on River St.
- look at fossils in Plant River Side District

“HIKING” / OUTDOORS SIGHT SEEING:

- Wormsloe State Historic Site
- Bonaventure Cemetery
- Skidaway Island State Park (hiking trails in maritime forest)

ROOF TOP BARS:

- Peregrin
- Rocks on the Roof
- Bar Julian (good food and can watch cargo ships)
- Electric Moon

BARS:

- Savoy Society (cute cocktails)
- Late Air
- Starland Yard (shipping container hang out space w food trucks and bar)
- Lone Wolf

RESTAURANTS:

I would avoid most restaurants and bars on River St – it's pretty touristy!

- Collin's Quarter (brunch at Forsyth after farmers market)
- Late Air (cocktails and lite bites)
- Brochu's Family Tradition (Chicken & Oysters , reservations required)
- Lucia's (our FAV- Reservations or get there when they open)
- The Public (yummy shrimp and grits)
- Zunzibar (casual and good, fun environment)
- The Wyld (on the water)
- Sobremesa (wine bar, tapas style- reservations)
- Huey's (good breakfast on River Street)

COFFEE SHOPS:

- Foxy Loxy (Tex-Mex food and coffee with a nice patio)
- Perc
- Float Coffee
- Mate Factor
- Cutters Point Coffee

DESSERT:

- Lulu's Chocolate Bar (yummy chocolate martinis and dessert)
- River Street Sweets or Savannah Candy Kitchen (free praline samples)

TYBEE ISLAND RESTAURANTS/ BARS & ACTIVITIES:

- Sea Wolf (fun cocktails & ambiance, known for their hotdogs)
- Bubba Gumbo's (best local seafood, on marsh)
- HUC-A-POO's (big fan, island vibe and late night music)
- Shark tooth hunting on the beach (tour or self search on the beach)
- Tybean Coffee
- Kayak to little Tybee (if you're active, can be hard with wind and tides)
- Cute local gift shops in same shopping center as Tybean and Huc-a-poo's
